Wet N' Wild, Movie Nights & Information on the Future

Pool Reconstruction is a generational investment! The City of Worthington is working to explore funding for the next step and they will be sending out a survey in August. Our website has additional information on the future.

THIS WEEK'S TOP STORIES

Swim Lessons

Summer Sessions continue and the registration for lessons from July 24th-August 3rd is open. Sign up online for a private or group lesson. If you have any questions, don't hesitate to send our Director of Swim School an email at karen.dayton@worthingtonpools.com. The registration for Session 5 opens on August 2nd.

Movie Nights

Friday, July 21st bring the kids and the inflatables and watch a new movie about two Plumber Brothers who rescue Princesses! And on Friday, July 28th be prepared to see your Animals in a Different Way with a classic Stephen King movie (Rated R for Gore & Strong Language).

Wet N' Wild WOODSTOCK Week

At various times through the day, we'll be having friendly competitions, activities & games during the week from Wednesday, August 2nd-Sunday the 6th. Concessions will bring their burgers back and we're going to have some live music! Funky Ducklings on the 5th & Harmonic Soul on the 6th. Check out the bands' Instagram pages.

90's Hot Dog Night

August 1st we're hosting a performance for The Wet Bandits, a local 90's cover band. Bring your guests after 4 for only $4 and bring your appetite because we'll be grilling 5pm-7pm. Live Music performance 6pm-7pm, bring your dancing feet!
